Maria Rosaria D'Antonio

Maria Rosaria D'Antonio is the Head of Administration for the IAU. She worked in the Departmental Staff of the Minister for Scientific and Technological Research in Italy, Executive Secretary to the President of the Italian Space Agency, as well as being Assistant to the Galileo Programme National Director office of the Under-Secretary of the Council of Minister in Rome. She also worked as Public Outreach of Exploration and Observation of Universe Unit and Science Data Center of ASI and also at the Management Office Secretary in charge of activities related to the Board of Directors Managing Archives, Meetings, Technical Reports, ESA documents and International Agreements. She took care of the archive and analysis of documents related to European Business. She managed activities in view of reaching ESA Institutional Objectives (preliminary proceedings, organizing events, establishing relations among delegates, documents and database of contracts) and also activities connected to partnering events and the database of National offers in relation to the Sixth Framework Program.

Publications:

EWASS 2012:"Cosmo segreto- Astronomy presented in a historical location.

Authors: Francesco D'Alessio, Marco Faccini, Giuliana Giobbi, Riccardo Leoni, M. Rosaria D'Antonio, Laura Daricello, Antonio Maggio; The Chernkov Telescope Array (CTA): ASDC Outreach; ASI Atlas (Images of Universe);Brochure ASI Science Data Center (Italian and English launguage); Brochure ASI Exploration and Observation of the Universe (Italian and English language)

Actually she is also the leader of the IAU Inspiring Stars Task Force with Lina Canas (OAO) and Wanda Diaz (OAD), an IAU inclusion project collaborative Initiative in which resources related to astronomy research, communication and development are collected via an open call around the world and combined in a unique interactive exhibition.